

Los Angeles Times

MONDAY, JUNE 27, 2005

MAN CENTER HELD "3RD
WORLD CONFERENCE FOR
PEACE AND PROSPERITY OF NATIONS."

The event had the patronage of the United Nations and the European Commission and was held in Arezzo, Italy, at the Monastery of Sargiano. The Conference was chaired by Pier Franco Marcenaro, international Award for Peace, and it focused on the need of dialogue among different cultures and religions for peace on Earth, the problem of poverty in the world, the safeguard of environment and the rebirth of high social and spiritual values. The "Art, Science and Peace" Prize was awarded to movie director Franco Zeffirelli.